

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, May 5

1999

TABES '99 to focus on technology for the future

The 15th annual Technical and Business Exhibition and Symposium (TABES) is being held May 18-19 at the Von Braun Center in Huntsville. The two-day event is organized around four distinct symposium tracks covering aerospace, business, defense and technology. Visit www.tabes.org for details.

Contracting officer technical rep update class May 11. Enroll through ADMINStar

Bring your children to work June 24. Register through 'Inside Marshall'

Asian Pacific/American Heritage luncheon set

The Marshall Center and the U.S. Army will celebrate Asian Pacific/American Heritage Month with a luncheon May 25 from 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m. at the Redstone Arsenal Club. Tickets, at $8, are available from Marshall's Equal Employment Opportunity Office at 544-0088.

Friday is last day to volunteer to help fight cancer

The Relay for Life, an opportunity to participate in the fight against cancer, will be held May 14 at Joe Davis Stadium from 7 p.m.-7 a.m. Volunteers are needed for the luminary ceremony and children's activities. Volunteer through Friday through the "Inside Marshall" Website. For more information, call Rosa Kilpatrick at 544-0042.

Marshall Center's safety goal:
Be No. 1 in safety within NASA!